Dear Editor,
Recently, I signed my name in for a sponsored walk. I did 30 laps, and afterwards I had sore feet. But I did get a certificate and a badge for raising £9.75p.
DEBORAH MURPHY, Lewes.
30 laps! Well done! The only lapse I've seen Ossie do is the lapse in his work ... Editor.

Dear Editor,
Why don't you print posters of other WHOOPEE! / SHIVER & SHAKE characters. I thought the Bumpkin posters were great.
ELIZABETH LAKE, Frettenham.
I've received dozens of letters just like yours, Elizabeth, and so I'm considering doing some more . . . look out for Scream Inn and Sweeny Toddler posters that are planned for the future . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,
My Dad has just been posted to Germany, and we're hoping to join him soon, taking our budgie, rabbit and our two dogs, but when we leave I will miss reading my WHOOPEE!/ SHIVER & SHAKE.
ADRIAN WILKS, Camberley.
We all wish you well in Germany, Adrian. And when you say your Dad was 'posted', I hope you didn't wrap him up in brown paper and send him first class . . . Editor.

Dear Blunder Puss,
I wish I was you and had eight guardian angels to protect me, because I am very silly. I have had eighty-four stitches in my leg, two in my head and one in my tongue. I am silly, aren't I?
AMANDA PRECIOUS, Hull.
With a surname like Precious you ought to take more care of yourself. I wouldn't say you were silly . . . more unlucky. But £1 is on its way to cheer you up . . . Blunder Puss.

MIKE YARWOOD QUIZ ANSWERS

KNOCK-KNOCK

MICHAEL HOLE of TIVERTON receives £1 as this week's winner. Send your entry to KNOCK-KNOCK at the WHOOPEE! address. In cases of duplication the first entry received will be judged.

Dear Editor.

I belong to Northfield Swimming Club, and I took my copy of WHOOPEE! / SHIVER 'n' SHAKE along with me to the last gala. I gave the comic to a boy to look at while I took part in my event, and when I returned for it, another boy was reading it. Do you know, it was passed around the whole club, and I went home without even seeing it.

STEVEN BYWATER, Birmingham.

Well, if you had to splash out for another copy, having your letter printed will more than make up for it . . . Editor.

OSSIE

Hi, Pals, Ossie here with a bit more Fleetway chit-chat. Alan the artist passed his driving test the other day! First time, too! Trouble is, he's always talking about cars now, and it's DRIVING me round the bend! . . . Now on to your letters . . .

Dear Ossie,

One day, when I was ill, I wanted something to do, so I decided to crochet a chain and see how long it was by the end of the day. When I measured it, it was 32ft. 10ins. long. Any suggestions of what I can do with it now?

ANNETTE ARDLEY, Braintree.

H'm! How about using it as a tug-o'-war rope, or alternately, take up mountaineering . . . Ossie.

Dear Ossie,

I think WHOOPEE! / SHIVER 'n' SHAKE should have more pages, even though it would obviously have to cost extra. Two other things I'd like to see are extra space for letters, and a new story as scarey as Scream Inn.

PAUL O'REILL, Harrow Weald.

Well, you certainly know what you want, pal — I wonder what other readers think? . . . Ossie.

Dear Ossie,

I am a West Ham supporter, and I was very pleased that the team won on Cup Final day. Please could you print a picture of captain Billy Bonds holding the F.A. Cup.

DAVID REID, Workington.

Cool! You're a real long-distance supporter, so I think I ought to meet your request. Besides, it just so happens there are two or three hulking great Hammers' fans working with me . . . and . . . looking . . . over . . . my . . . shoulder . . . at . . . this . . . very . . . minute . . . Ossie.

Dear Ossie,

I would like to tell you about my holiday in Scotland. I went with my class from school, and one day we all went horse-riding. It was just my luck that I picked a proper slowcoach of a pony, but suddenly he broke into a fast run and I yelled for help. My teacher called out: "Don't yell — you'll frighten the pony!" "Never mind the pony," I cried back. "I'm more frightened than him!"

ALISON WHYTE, New Eltham.

H'm, I bet that incident is still a saddle-sore point with you . . . Ossie.
